

Advanced Imaging Support for Your Mammogram.

Your mammogram may be interpreted with support from artificial intelligence (AI) tools designed to assist with image review, breast density assessment, breast cancer risk assessment or identifying information related to heart health.

AI does not replace your radiologist or healthcare providers. Your results are always reviewed and interpreted by a qualified medical professional.

Questions?

Please ask your technologist.